

Register online at:
www.okaee.org

To register by mail, complete the following:

- $25 Members (by Jan. 26)
 - $35 Non-Members (by Jan. 26)
 - $25 Special Student Rate (by Jan. 26)
- (Registration fees include Award Luncheon.)

Add $15 late fee if postmarked after Jan. 26
(lunch not guaranteed after Jan. 26)

Name _____
 Address _____
 School/Org _____
 Phone _____
 Email _____

I will be attending the Awards Luncheon:
 Regular Vegetarian

My payment:
 Check enclosed for $ _____
 PO# attached for $ _____

Make checks payable to OKAEE (FEI#73-1529225)
 Return form with payment to:
 OKAEE
 POB 2382

TEACHER FEE WAIVER AVAILABLE

Apply online at: www.okaee.org

OKAEE
 Oklahoma Association for Environmental Education
 P.O. Box 2382
 Stillwater, OK 74076-2382

February 8, 2007

the S A M N O B L E
 O K L A H O M A M U S E U M
of N A T U R A L H I S T O R Y

Hosted by OKAEE
 The Oklahoma Association for
 Environmental Education

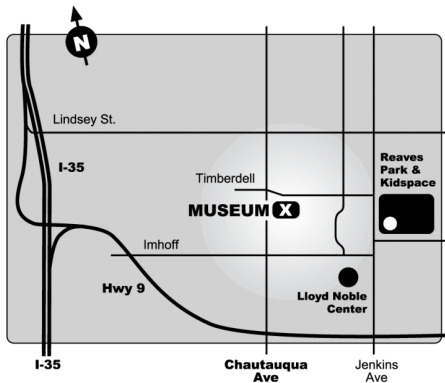

DATE, TIME, LOCATION

Thursday, February 8, 2007

7:30 am - 4:00 pm

the Sam Noble Oklahoma
Museum of Natural History

The University of Oklahoma
2401 Chautauqua Ave, Norman

EXHIBITS

A limited number of exhibit spaces will be available at the conference. To apply for an exhibit space, please visit our website at: www.okaee.org

For questions, contact Karla Beatty at 405.521.6788 or karla.beatty@conservation.ok.gov

From Dust to Dreams... a century of Environmental Education in Oklahoma

Any discussion of environmental education in Oklahoma should begin with the history of Oklahoma and our ties to land and water resources in this great state. Environmental Education in Oklahoma really began when the state was still in its infancy. In the 1930s, the Dust Bowl taught us many environmental lessons in Oklahoma - perhaps the most valuable was to take care of the land.

Since that time in history, Oklahoma has made great strides in educating our citizens on the importance of conserving our natural resources and protecting our environment. Oklahoma is a leader in many environmental and natural resource management arenas with technology as well as education and outreach efforts. We continue to make advances so that all Oklahomans can achieve their dreams.

Some of these exceptional programs and resources will be showcased at the 2007 Environmental Education Expo, especially the host site, the Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History. Additional sessions at the EE Expo include:

- Using GIS in the Classroom
- OK Climatological Survey
- Tulsa World Newspaper in Education
- Ag in the Classroom
- Economics and the Environment
- NASA's Earth Science program
- Behind-the-Scenes tours

So, join OKAEE as we celebrate a century of environmental education in Oklahoma by going

From Dust to Dreams...

AWARD NOMINATIONS

OKAEE recognizes excellence in environmental education by presenting the following awards:

- President's Achievement
- Outstanding Classroom Teacher
- Outstanding Student
- Outstanding Organization
- Excellence in Media

Nomination forms are available on our website at: www.okaee.org

For questions, contact Richard Bryant at 405.744.8005 or richard.bryant@okstate.edu
OR Ande Reed at 918.579.9425 or ande@metrecycle.com.

SILENT AUCTION

Proceeds from this annual conference event allow OKAEE to offer teacher stipends to the conference. If you would like to donate an item for the auction, please contact Elicia Ligon at 405.377.7075 or elicialigon@hotmail.com.